ABOUT BELGRADE

KNEZ MIHAILOVA

SKADARLIJA

Skadarska Street or Skadarlija is not boulevard, not avenue but curving cobblestone alley. It is bohemian and romantic quarter of the Belgrade city sung in many songs and told in many stories. 400 meters long street managed to keep the spirit of old times, authenticity old look with cobblestone asphalt, identical facade and bars that stand in the same place for more than 150 years.

ABOUT BELGRADE

TEMPLE OF ST SAVA

It does not matter whether you are an atheist, Catholic, Muslim, Orthodox or belong to another religious group - the Temple of Saint Sava is the symbol of Belgrade and the country.

Several religious sites stand out from the rest in spite of strictly defined rules that architects must be met. Unusual proportions and artistic processing, such buildings are beyond religious role and become monuments of great cultural significance.

ZEMUN

Once a separate town, Zemun has been a municipality within the city of Belgrade since 1945. People have settled the area of Zemun as far back as the Neolithic, using the favourable position of the banks of the Danube and the Sava. The Zemun Fortress is the oldest building in Zemun, mentioned as early as the 9th century. The current remains are from the 15th century.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN IN SPORT & ANTIDOPING WORKSHOPS

As well as various webinars taking place several days before the event to support the Head of Delegation and Coaches in preparing their mission within an ISF event (these online educational & capacity building activities are compulsory to attend for all the following adults' stakeholders taking part in ISF events), the ISF's promotion of school sport by the ISF Academy through its international events also involves the transmission of knowledge through workshops on two themes that are dear to us all: Safeguarding Children in Sport and Doping Prevention in Sport. ISF firmly believes that children have and must have the necessary inner resources, through these workshops, to understand, identify and react to negative behaviour such as racism, gender inequality or violence and abuse. The challenge for ISF is to find the right way to express difficult ideas and present complicated topics to young people so that they understand, but also so that they correctly apprehend this problem and are able to react to it.

Raising awareness and enabling participants to transfer their knowledge to their peers back home are also key elements of ISF. During this event, athletes from all over the world will attend several workshops sessions given by experts in the field, passing on their knowledge and experience through dedicated, constructive and interactive pedagogy.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION TEACHERS SEMINAR

Whoever said that acquiring knowledge and skills is reserved only for the youth?

The ISF Academy has recently taken on another challenge: to train Physical Education teachers, enhancing their skills and giving them the best tools to promote sports within the school environment. During the event, the ISF Academy, in partnership with International Sports Federation and/or the LOC, will organise workshops for national PE Teachers aiming at providing pedagogical tools and innovative exercises to better engage young individuals in sports and develop life skills through the sport. This activities will be open to any PE Teachers as well.

ISF YOUNG REPORTERS PROGRAMME

The ISF Young Reporters Programme is an educational programme offering media education with experts while providing practice in the field on the international stage. This programme welcomes participants from all around the world with no prior experience needed.

The registration is open to any young people:

- Young people ISF members & non-ISF members aiming to participate exclusively in this programme
- Young reporters already part of the participating delegation to the ISF event
- Local students for the organizing committee country.
- Athletes participating in the ISF event (depending on their competition schedules)
- Any young individual could register for this programme

Young participants will be part of the School Sports Journalism and Media workshops during ISF events led by known experts offering them education, practice, and lifetime experience in the field.

They will learn about the organisation of large sporting events, photography skills, creating content for social media, what is school sports journalism, and how to report events. Moreover, they will discover the world of video production and how broadcasting looks backstage.

If registering ISF Youth Reporter together with your delegation, add it over the ERAS platform as an additional person emphasizing its role.

If the delegation is not registering (country) for the event, registration is possible over e-mail: marija@isfsports.org
